

What to Expect in Third Grade at Regents

Chapel is on Friday.

Our PE days are Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Special classes are Art, Music, and Library

Fine arts appreciation is music by Respighi and Handel, art from Ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome, and poetry from William Wadsworth Longfellow,

Bible reading comes from Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth and Job

Bible memory includes:	Genesis 1:1 – 2:3 Exodus 20: 1-17 Romans 12: 9-21	Ephesians 3 Philippians 4:8
------------------------	---	--------------------------------

History units include:	Biblical History Mesopotamia	Ancient Egypt Ancient Greece and Rome
------------------------	---------------------------------	--

Science topics include:	The make-up and formation of the Earth Volcanoes and Earthquakes Rocks, minerals and fossils	Caves Simple Machines
-------------------------	--	--------------------------

Literature books the children will read:	Charlotte's Web Homer Price Charlie and the Chocolate Factory	Detectives in Togas Because of Winn Dixie D'Aulaire's Greek Myths
--	---	---

Teacher read-aloud books may include:	The Secret Garden Black Ships Before Troy The Golden Goblet	Prince Caspian The Bronze Bow The Black Stallion
---------------------------------------	---	--

Language arts skills learned are:	Learn to classify Pattern 3 sentences Use the eight parts of speech Learn new Spelling rules Write clear and colorful paragraphs
-----------------------------------	---

Math skills are found in:	Saxon Math 4
---------------------------	--------------

Exciting field trips may include:	Luray Caverns Morefield Mines UVA architectural walking tour Smithsonian Mummy Exhibit and Geology Exhibits	Jefferson Area Food Bank Polyface Farm
-----------------------------------	--	---

Special events & projects may include:	Mummifying a chicken Rock Show Greek Olympics	Passover Seder Greco-Roman Feast
--	---	-------------------------------------

Ministerium:	Jefferson Area Food Bank
--------------	--------------------------